

A PLACE TO CELEBRATE AND RECOGNIZE COQUITLAM'S SPORTS HEROES

Coquitlam BC – Grand achievements deserve a grand honour.

That honour is coming, with the unveiling of the Coquitlam Sports Hall of Fame.

Part of the renovated Poirier Sport and Leisure Complex (633 Poirier Street), the Sports Hall of Fame will provide a grand entry for the heroes and accomplishments of the past and present.

When? The first members are slated to be inducted in the fall of 2010, following the completion of construction on the Poirier Sport and Leisure Complex's front lobby.

Celebrating athletic career achievements and annual heroes, the Coquitlam Sports Hall of Fame will recognize, through pictures, words and memorabilia, the heroes of yesterday and today.

Over 1,000 square feet has been dedicated to honour athletes, coaches, builders and teams from the City of Coquitlam for their outstanding contributions and achievements in sport.

How? The Board of Directors for the Coquitlam Sports Hall of Fame invites nominations for the Hall of Fame inductees and for the annual Wall of Fame categories:

- The Hall of Fame – recognizing career or long-term achievements by individuals (athletes, contributors and volunteers) and teams who have contributed to and represented Coquitlam. Nominees should be individuals with a lengthy or significant sports history, with chosen inductees becoming permanent members of the Coquitlam Sports Hall of Fame.
- The Wall of Fame – honouring Coquitlam's individuals and teams with an annual award, in the following categories: athlete with a disability; university/college athlete(s); junior (18 and under) male and female athletes; high school male and female athletes; senior (19+) male and female athletes; master (55+) male and female athletes; team; and coach. Wall of Fame nominees should be individuals whose sport contribution or achievement occurred in 2009.

The Coquitlam Sports Hall of Fame website was launched June 15, 2010 (www.coquitlamshof.com).

There you will find the nomination forms for both the Hall of Fame inductees and the Wall of Fame awards, along with additional information concerning the opening of the Hall of Fame.
